Dear Brother Robinson:

I appreciate your gracious message of April 30th. Shall pass on your inquiry about the student to teach next year. Dr. Palmer is at the head of our Community Service Department and arranges for the engaging of students in the community. You will hear from him. I trust that arrangements may be made.

We certainly have some very capable students. You will have in mind, of course, that we are assuming responsibilities in many cases for the financing of the students so that in turn we hope to receive at least partial support for them for work which they do in the community.

I am much interested in your suggestion about moderator. I should think Campbell Morgan would make a very good Moderator. The question rises what the rank and file of the Presbyterian ministry would think of having one who has been for the most part, if I am not mistaken, in another denomination, and an Englishman. There are a good many people who are really and truly, and rather decidedly, sectarian.

I am quite sympathetic with the idea of breaking the ring which according to pretty general opinion runs the machinery of the church.

I am free to confess that I regret reports that have gone abroad, published by the Committee on Marriage, etc. One feels like keeping away from meetings which are exploited as this General Assembly meeting seems likely to be on lines sensational and unworthy of the church. Perhaps, however, the thing to do is to be on the ground.

I rejoice in the fact that you found Lake George so helpful. I am sorry to report that for financial reasons, we are omitting the program for this season; also the Summer School. It seems necessary that we should reduce expenses to the limit.

I remain,

Cordially yours,

Wilbert W. White

My dear Mr. Robinson ~

Your note concerning the book review was deeply appreciated. Let me, in turn, tell you how thoroughly I enjoyed yours on Dr. Coffin's new book. It was able and timely. You let him hang himself with his own rope ~ skillfully done!

Yes, the days are full of apostacy. Poor Dr. Ewing is right. I love him! He is so genuine.

By the way I have a book review in the hands of the Presbyterian on The History of Fundamentalism by Prof Cole of Crozer Theol. Sem.

It is radically liberal - astonishingly so.

Have you seen Shailer Mathews' article in Feb issue of Forum? It is appalling in its candor. Downright atheism! But just what Dr. Fosdick has held for years.

I rejoice in your noble stand for Evangelical truth. I wish you would join our League of Faith. The enclosed came today and I am giving it to you.

Yours for the truth

My dear Dr. Robinson:

I have your letter of April 25th, together with letter from Mr. Morrison, inviting me to attend a dinner on May 28th of the Citizens Committee of One Thousand. I wish it were possible for me to accept, but I have a speaking engagement here in Philadelphia on that evening, which it is impossible for me to break.

I am writing Mr. Morrison today, thanking him for the invitation, and expressing regret at my inability to accept.

With kindest regards to you personally, I am

Sincerely yours,

LEMUEL B. SCHOFIELD
